VISUALIZING HEALTH!

Energy (bio-information) becomes visual!

- hadoscan helps us to see the invisible,
- makes us believe the impossible and as bonus,
- we receive the incredible!

hadoscan is a bio-informational analysis system capable of visualizing patterns of information imbalances in the energetic human body. The system can assist in the reestablishment of a healthy information balance in clients.

hadoscan can accurately investigate the current level of informational regulation of the body's bio-field and its subtle energetic pathways in the tissues. Clients have the opportunity to learn about the nature of existing imbalances and investigate which strategies will be the best to achieve a desired outcome.

hadoscan is based on the application of quantum regulatory effects occurring within biological systems. Every organ and cell has its own distinctive oscillation or wave frequency pattern. These vibratory signatures have been stored digitally in hadoscan's extensive database as graphically reproducible and comparable (resonance) information.

Each graph is a symbolic representation of the information exchange (resonance) between a specific energetic tissues of healthy individuals and is classified by their age and gender for comparison with a client's profile at the time of the investigation.

Early detection of low levels of energy in tissue, long before disease occurs:

- Analysis optimized through frequency harmonization
- 1-click overview about the whole energetic and holistic investigation
- Export of healthy pictures to support the self-healing process
- Remote investigation for a second health-opinion

hadoscan is a non-medical application

The hadoscan doesn't "cure" anyone or solve health problems, makes no explicit or implied medical claims; does not diagnose, treat, any disease or medical condition, and does not in any way replace the medical care of a licensed physician or other health care provider.

TESTIMONIAL:

I have been going for hadoscan sessions, and I am very happy to find that not only has my energy level increased, but I find myself much more positive and stronger, am able to resolve things and make decisions that seemed to be impossible before. My health has continued to improve and I was able to address issues on both the physical and mental/spiritual side. I could see the areas where my energy was low and I could feel the shifting of energy as we worked on the various areas. My mother says I am even holding myself straighter and because she has seen all the improvements that I am experiencing, she has told me not to stop these sessions no matter what! - Marie C.
